The person is in good health

— Métis experiential learning opportunity —

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Engage in direct experience and focused reflection to increase knowledge about who the Métis are, in both historical and contemporary context.
- Experience Métis cultural displays and artwork that tell the story about the Métis diaspora and lived experiences of the Métis people.

ABOUT THE SESSION

- This session will be facilitated by Lisa Shepherd, who is a Métis knowledge carrier. Lisa works responsibly to hold, share and revitalize Métis culture, educating people through authentic artwork and storytelling.
- This workshop is aligned with the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Call to Action #23 and the Province's commitment to address systemic racism in health care as outlined in the In Plain Sight: Addressing Indigenous-specific Racism and Discrimination in B.C. Health Care.
- This session will offer a catered lunch from Salmon n' Bannock using traditional ingredients.
